Week of Sept 14th

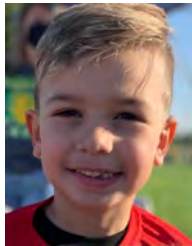

Edition 1

K - Ball

Asher Vogt

Asher's coach nominated him because he plays any position he is asked and never argues or complains. During last week's game, he volunteered to take a break so his teammates could play, even when he wanted to play. He has a great attitude and celebrated his teammates achievements. Way to go Asher!

1st & 2nd Grade

Kellan Grant

Kellan's coach says: "Each practice and game he always has something motivating to say to the team. He will play offense, defense or sit sideline with no question. He adds great value to the team with every play he is on the field." Great job Kellan!

3rd & 4th Grade

Tristin Cowgill-Warren

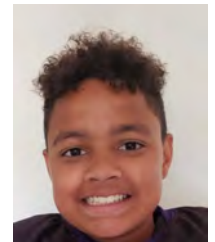

Tristin is always giving his best effort at every practice and game, says his coach. He is extremely coachable and always listening. Even when he was injured, he would show up to practice to be supportive of his team. We are proud of you, Tristin!

5th & 6th Grade

Bredun Bursey

Bredun is always motivating his team to be their best. His coach says he gives everything he has at every practice and never quits. This last game he went 6 for 6 passing with over 150 yards through the air. Awesome job, Bredun!

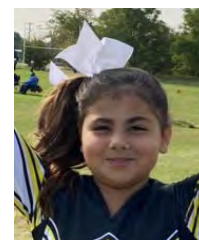

Honorable Mentions: Kingston Fonville-Bush and Dey'Quan Young

Honorable Mentions: Landon Ploof, Chance Harrell and Zander Hoffman

Cheerleading

Natalie Hernandez

Natalie's coach says she is always listening and paying close attention during practice and games. She takes correction with a smile and you can tell she practices at home. Go Natalie!
